

OUR LITERARY SERVICES

Pecan Tree Publishing loves to brag about THE AUTHOR PATHFINDER Department. Here you will find a team that can assist with editing, proofreading, coaching, development, and critiquing.

This department is manned by authors, editors, and coaches with a wealth of writing and publishing experience. The experience is gained from multiple angles: teaching, writing, assisting others, navigating through their own writing challenges, and collaborating with authors full of questions, ideas, and a love of words.

The wonderful thing about this department is you can work directly with one of our team without publishing with us.

Our goal is to help you get that book written!
